Haute Joaillerie Collection

Unique pair of diamond earrings

BID NOW

These elegant earrings feature two large emerald-cut diamonds of 6 carats each, two brilliant-cut diamonds (2 carats), and 310 diamonds totaling 1 carat, set in 18-carat Ethical white gold.

These beautiful creations are crafted in Chopard's Haute Joaillerie ateliers in Geneva.

Since its founding in 1860, Chopard has been creating timepieces and jewellery exuding contemporary charm, synonymous with Ethics and Emotions, while perpetuating a heritage rich in tradition, artisanal savoir-faire, and limitless creativity.

Guiding Chopard from generation to generation, the Scheufele family is firmly convinced that contemporary luxury must necessarily be responsible. Today, Chopard thus uses 100% Ethical gold for the production of its gold watches and jewellery as well as manufacturing its own Lucent Steel™—with a recycling rate of 80%—for its steel timepieces.

More than 50 professions are mastered in Chopard's workshops, where particular attention is paid to in-house training, passing on savoir-faire and perpetuating Artistic Crafts. As World Sponsor and Official Timekeeper of the 1000 Miglia—the world's most beautiful classic car race—since 1988, and Official Partner to the Cannes Film Festival since 1998, Chopard consistently lives up to its stature as an Artisan of Emotions.
